
CAMP FORMAT

BRABOA's LHSAA/LHSOA sanctioned camp is in conjunction with the Episcopal High School Team Camp. Veteran Top-28 officials will evaluate campers on the state-approved 3-person mechanics. Campers will receive written evaluations and will review play situations during classroom instruction to boost in-game performance. All officials can expect to work several game assignments. Campers must complete all game assignments to receive camp credit.

Highlights

-  Top 28 Tournament officials to provide instruction and evaluations.
-  Camp officials to receive on court evaluations and a video critique.
-  Improve your skills using approved LHSAA 3-person mechanics.
-  Increase knowledge and understanding of the philosophy of basketball officiating.
-  Gain the self-confidence needed to become one of the best officials in your association.

Commitment

BRABOA promotes excellence in basketball officiating by providing an opportunity to those officials seeking to improve their skills. Our goal is to teach you good habits that will help perfect your mechanics, understand the philosophy of basketball officiating and ultimately gain self-confidence on the court. You will be a better official after this camp. Your investment in the offseason will have you better prepared for next season.

“The will to win, the desire to succeed, the urge to reach your full potential...these are the keys that will unlock the door to personal excellence.”
